

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS.

Towns in Many States Feel the Vibration of Earth.

Chicago, August 23.—Illinois was shaken by an earthquake shortly after 11 o'clock last night, the most severe in recent years. The shock was felt in the southern part of the state and especially in the region surrounding St. Louis was severe enough to cause dishes and furniture to cause the dogs to bark as in alarm and children to awaken and cry. Houses cracked and in many instances their occupants rushed out in terror, fearing that the straining beams and joists would give way.

As far north as Springfield the shock was distinctly felt. Farther to the north it grew less perceptible, until in the region of Chicago, it was noticed, although it is expected that the delicate instruments placed in the office of the weather bureau will, when examined, show a seismic disturbance was recorded. The office was closed last night before the shock came, and the instruments could not be consulted.

Not only Illinois, but western Kentucky and parts of Tennessee and Indiana were shaken. Messages from the different towns in those states say that three distinct shocks in quick succession were felt. The waves of the earth's motion seemed to be from east to west.

Shock Felt at St. Louis.

St. Louis, August 23.—St. Louis and vicinity was visited last night by an earthquake shortly after 11 o'clock. Three distinct shocks were felt by thousands of persons in St. Louis and St. Louis county as far east as Belleville, Mo., as far south as Paducah, Ky. and as far north as Springfield, Ill. While the tremors lasted scarcely a minute, they were distinct enough to awaken sleeping residents and to cause dogs to bark in alarm. The shocks seemed to travel from east to west. There was but an infinitesimal period between them, only a second intervening between the first and second spasms, and about three seconds between the second and third, or final shock.

The trembling of the earth was accompanied by a dull rumbling noise, resembling the passing of a distant freight train.

Shocks Felt in Tennessee.

Nashville, August 23.—A Clarksville, Tenn. dispatch to The Banner says a severe earthquake shock was felt there at 11:10 o'clock last night shaking down a chimney on a residence and causing much excitement. Seismic disturbances were also noted at the town of Union City and other sections of the state. A vigorous shock was felt in Nashville.

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was run down, and a year ago had to stop work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good. I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." J. A. McCollum & Co.

Negro Killed at Camp Meeting.

Greenville, Ga., August 23.—As a result of a riot at a negro camp meeting at Greenville, 6 miles south of Zebulon, one negro is dead, another killed and three others are in jail. Shots were fired and white marshals and negro police and liquor vendors. One of the negroes in jail, Jim Williams, is charged with selling whisky.

Quarantine Is Very Rigid.

Chattanooga, Tenn., August 23.—The health boards of health at a meeting this morning adopted very stringent regulations. In the case of trains entering the city no baggage from all persons desiring to enter Chattanooga, health certificates of the proper and recognized authorities.

Chills, Fever and Summer Cold.

Dr. J. W. McCollum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so severe that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to aggravate my case. Fortunately I resorted to having Foley's Kidney and Urinary Cure. My wife has since used Foley's Kidney and Urinary Cure with the same success." J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Worm Killer.

J. A. J. Montgomery, Ponce, Wayne county Mo., writes: "I have little twin girls, who have been bothered with worms all their lives. I tried everything to relieve them, which failed until I used White's Cream Vermifuge; the first two doses brought four worms from one of them, the next two doses, twelve, one of them measuring twelve inches, the other child was only relieved of four worms. It is an excellent medicine." White's Cream Vermifuge is good for children. It not only destroys worms—it helps the child to perfect growth, wards off sickness. Sold by W. M. Johnson

Elaborate Play Produced.

San Francisco, August 23.—"The Great Interrogation" was given an elaborate reproduction by Frederick Relasco at the Alcazar theater last night, with White Whitley and Juliet Crosby in the cast. This play serves to introduce Jack London, the novelist, as a playwright. It is written in collaboration with Lee Bascom (Mrs. G. H. Marsden), a dramatist. The story tells of one David Payne, who renounces the higher civilization for the simple and primitive life. The scene is laid in Alaska.
